The item that I just filed is not a motion, but a notice. I made the court aware of new evidence. That's it. Seriously, what is your problem, and why do you take all of this so personally? Did you take a government job because you don't know how to act like a professional?

You never sent me your motion in the first place to properly confer. Not the first time you failed to follow the local rules. I plan on bringing that to the court's attention. Again.

I will look at your motion and respond to you regarding the hearing request by COB Wednesday. Unless you want to jump the gun again with more Rambo tactics.

I plan to ask the Court to hear our motion to compel the FBI's compliance with our subpoena duces tecum. Please let me know whether your clients oppose. Thanks.
